

ÉMILE CORDEAU
BIOGRAPHY

Since joining Agropur in 2013, Mr. Émile Cordeau has occupied a series of positions, including most recently Senior Vice-President and Chief Financial Officer, in which capacity he played a key role in the Cooperative's development. He previously occupied the position of Vice-President for the Foodservice and Proximity Retail group and was formerly in charge of the Fine Cheese Business Unit.

Before joining Agropur, Émile Cordeau worked for seven years at Dollarama where he actively participated in its evolution from a privately held family-owned company to a major public company. Émile Cordeau also acquired a diversified experience in Finance and Mergers & Acquisitions with companies such as Transcontinental and RBC Capital Markets. He graduated from HEC Montréal with a Bachelor's degree in Commerce.